THE LIST

SPARKLING & CHAMPAGNE

12.5CL 75CL

Prosecco Ca' del Console, Brut NV Italy 6.00 32.00

A classic Prosecco, bright, light, lemon-gold colour, persistent mousse. Lively nose with aromas of white peach, pear, citrus and flowers. The palate is fresh, and clean with the fruit present in abundance, not overly dry, just ripe and fresh. Very well balanced and with an acid line that will make this a perfect food match for seafood, light salads and light, simple fish dishes.

Cremant D'Alsace, Dopff-Au-Moulin NV France 38.00

Bright, straw-coloured appearance. Good, very even small bubbles. Pronounced citrus nose with a trace of toastiness and some nice fresh yeast scents. A good clean attack. Very mousseux on the palate. Fills the mouth well and has lots of good, strong flavour. Finishes nice and cleanly with notable length. Ideal as an aperitif or as the basis for a "Kir Royal". Perfect accompaniment to a plate of seafood too.

Chapel Down Pinot Reserve 2006 England 39.00

The nose is dominated by complex, toasty aromas that have developed during maturation in the bottle. There is a background of redcurrant and light floral notes that are the signature aromas of these grapes. The wine has a refreshing fullness on the palate, with a fine bead and mousse, clean rich fruit flavours and perfect balance.

LE BRUN DE NEUVILLE CHAMPAGNE

The Champagnes of Le Brun de Neuville have consistently won medals in Wine Magazine's International Wine Challenge. In 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2000 all five cuvees were awarded medals, in 1992 Cuvée Roi Clovis was crowned with the Sparkling Wine Trophy, as was the Rosé in 1997, in 1998 the Chardonnay Blanc de Blancs was chosen as Sparkling Wine of the Year and in 1999 Cuvée Selection was awarded a gold medal. 2000 saw the Cuvée Chardonnay and the 1991 vintage being awarded with silver medals. In a blind tasting of Champagne magnums by Decanter magazine, Cuvée Selection won a five star rating and the Decanter Award for the best wine tasted, 'outstanding quality, a virtually perfect example'.

BOLLINGER CHAMPAGNE

Champagne Bollinger Grande Année 2004 150.00

Golden colour with a fine persistent bead. Lovely ripe, sweet fruit, tropical notes, baked apple, brioche, a hint of honey. Fine and gentle bubbles, rich and dry palate, red apples, stone fruit, lemon, vanilla, spice and yeast. Good citric-freshness, young and bold. Complex and rich champagne that has excellent length and class. A perfect example of vintage Champagne and would be the perfect accompaniment to many seafood dishes, especially oysters and mussels.
