Great rooms for great minds

Beautifully restored parquet flooring, elegantly high ceilings, ornate cornicing, original sash windows, and oak panelling tell one story: that of our distinguished heritage as a place where great minds met. Large LCD screens, a state-of-the-art wireless presentation system, Meeting Services App and high-speed Wifi tell another: that this is a venue perfectly equipped for today's meeting of minds. It is this seamless blend of historic charm and thoughtful, modern convenience that sets London Marriott Hotel County Hall apart, both as a hotel and a meetings and events destination. Add to that our incredible riverside location, offering views of Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament, and you have a truly compelling experience to offer your guests.

KING GEORGE V

Named after King George V who opened the County Hall building in 1922, this grand space with natural daylight provides a truly historic setting for any meeting or event. Ideal for seminars or dinners for up to 80 guests, the venue space is steeped in history with Grade II listed wood panelling and original parquet flooring. The interconnecting Queen Mary is perfect as a registration room, refreshments or pre-dinner cocktail reception.
