

autumn 2021

Our wine list is compact but wide-ranging, offering carefully chosen bottles that encompass the world's principal grape varieties and wine regions.

The Northern Hemisphere selection is the strongest, befitting a restaurant that offers transatlantic grill favourites, with the USA and classic European regions predominating. Meat-friendly wines abound. You will find an extensive selection of Burgundies, second growth Bordeaux, and sophisticated Italian reds, including Brunellos and Amarones.

We are proud of our selection of white wines, some especially chosen to match grilled meats, ranging from medium-bodied Burgundies and a full-bodied Californian Chardonnay to rich and textured Rhônes.

The North American section of the list is dynamic, showcasing well-known as well as under-the-radar and next-generation winemakers from California and beyond. Seasonally we highlight a producer and we are delighted to launch with Seghesio Family Vineyards known for their outstanding Zinfandel and Italian varietal wines from Sonoma County.

Our Fine and Rare Wine list continues to evolve and you will find some stellar names, as well as a depth of vintages.

Our by-the-glass selection is noteworthy: 54 wines offered, including fine wines rarely available by the glass, with perfect condition, ensured by Coravin.

Our Sommelier, Giorgio Scavarelli, a native of Piedmont and lover of Nebbiolo, is on hand to make suggestions.

Featured Producer

We are delighted to present the first of our highlighted seasonal producers, chosen for their outstanding contribution to the renown of Sonoma wines worldwide.

Seghesio Vineyards

The vineyards at Seghesio have been owned and managed by the eponymous family since 1895 when the Home Ranch vineyard was first planted with Zinfandel by Edoardo Seghesio. The Italian origins of the family are reflected in their choice of grape varieties with the unusual Arneis a particular curiosity. The winery was one of some 100 to survive the prohibition era.
