A rich full and round palate of great balance, displaying rich Douro berry fruit characters, with integrated oak tannins and a great length of finish.
613. 2008 The Dead Arm Shiraz 2008, D'Arenberg
 McLaren Vale, South Australia
 Dark fruit and savoury characters leap from the glass, in particular there is liquorice and blackberry, laced with a hint of char. Complexity in the shape of iodine and soil like notes follow. The wine is powerful and structured. There is a plethora of sweet fruit character, plums and mulberries, but not a hint of fatness. Rather the wine is quite compact and focused. A powerful yet refined expression of Shiraz with balance, complexity and persistence.

615. 2012 Artemis 2012, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars (Magnum) £185
 Napa, California
 Artemis is a voluptuous Cabernet Sauvignon blend made by world famous Stag's Leap Wine Cellars and named after a Greek goddess associated with the protection of wild animals, especially the sacred Stag. The wine itself offers inviting aromas of black cherry and plum with hints of vanilla, followed by a smooth, creamy palate of satin tannins and flavours of ripe mixed berries and blackcurrant. A touch of Merlot and a splash of Malbec add a deep complexity, as does 18 months resting in oak barrels.
616. 2010 Synchronicity 2010, Martin Meinert (Magnum) £85
 Stellenbosch, South Africa
 Deep, densely coloured, brick red with purple tints. Classical wild berry, cedar and cigar aromas are well supported by sweeter, plummy, mulberry whiffs. A big, rich wine that nevertheless already has a silky, velvety mouth feel and despite its power retains a fine and elegant core.

Fortified and Grappa

Grappa

The Nonino family has devoted itself to the art of artisanal distillation since 1897. Forty years ago the Noninos created the single varietal Grappa Nonino Monovitigno®, by distilling the pomace of the Picolit grape on its own and turned Grappa from Cinderella into a Queen of distillates! The success was so great that Italian and foreign distillers felt compelled to follow the Nonino model.

In December 2003 the President of the Italian Republic, Carlo Azeglio Ciampi, awarded Giannola and Benito Nonino the prestigious Leonardo Prize for Italian Quality for their "absolute quality level, research and innovation", adding that they were "the true ambassadors for Italian Grappa throughout the world."
