“

“Just wanted to put a note of Thanks together for the lovely evening my guest had last night at the Covent Garden Cafe Murano.. The atmosphere was perfect, the food was amazing, and the service (and I can't remember her name) was just so attentive and helpful and so on top of things, she was just great. Everything was very special so thank you to you and the rest of the team for a lovely evening“

Corporate client

“Just to say a huge thank you for looking after us so beautifully last night and for all your care and attention with the planning. It was a wonderful dinner and much enjoyed by everyone. “

“I would like to thank the staff involved for making the meal run perfectly and for the excellent service, organisation and delicious food on the night. We had conference visitors who had made a long trip to come to London for the day and we were delighted that the 'thank you' dinner went so well. Many thanks to all involved.“

The image shows the interior of Cafe Murano, a restaurant with a warm, pinkish-red wall. In the foreground, there are several round wooden tables set with white plates, glasses, and blue salt and pepper shakers. The chairs are made of light-colored wood with curved backs. In the background, there is a long, dark green leather tufted booth. Above the booth, there are three large, arched mirrors. The central mirror reflects a painting of two dogs, one black and white and one brown and white, sitting on a red and green patterned surface. The left mirror reflects a painting of two women in traditional headscarves holding food. The right mirror reflects a hanging glass chandelier and a shelf with various glassware and a small figurine. The overall atmosphere is cozy and elegant.
