THE STORY

Viajante87 is an intimate, high-energy experiential hideaway from multi-award-winning restaurateur, Markus Thesleff. Threading the pan-pacific energy of its sister Los Mochis through all elements including cocktail, design and bar bites, Viajante87 has a dedicated mixology lab sprawling across the basement (with only a handful existing in London) with a focus on a zero waste drinks philosophy, cutting-edge cocktail creations and outlandish crafting techniques.

We are striving to be one of the best bars in the world and we are doing so with sustainability at the forefront of everything we do.

THE LOCATION

Located on Notting Hill Gate, a subterranean enclave awaits, where guests find banquettes snaking around the main room with velvet stools hidden in dark, intimate corners. The 1,500sq ft Agaveria-cum-Izakaya brings a new concept to the West London landscape, where Tokyo meets Tulum, embodying the famed exclusive bars of a bygone era.

‘Viajante,’ which translates to ‘explorer,’ brings to life this Pan-Pacific spirit, taking each guest on a timeless journey, where the cocktails are great, the people are better, and the vibe is high.

THE CREATIONS

This seductive yet elegant late-night destination focuses on 100% agave-based signature cocktails alongside all the classics, spanning the flavour and palette spectrum.

Innovative serves include the Frida, Reposado, citrus sherbert, chamomile-oregano syrup, rosemary bitters, plum liquor, and champagne; the Cherry Blanco, tequila blanco, dehydrated sour cherries, clarified coca-cola; and the Travellers Martini, tequila reposado, bell peppers, fermented honey, green tea sherry.

Viajante87's ethos is all about showcasing sustainability and zero-waste wherever possible, as such, waste and off-cuts are repurposed and recycled within the drinks programme.

THE FOOD

Taking a cue from sister restaurant Los Mochis, for our food menu we use the finest seasonal, and sustainable ingredients and included are some of our most popular signature dishes, including a trio of crispy rice's topped with the likes of spicy salmon, guacamole & fresh truffle, habanero teriyaki duck; a range of delectable taco maki's, carnitas in lettuce wraps and kushiyaki's, that perfectly compliment Viajante87's cocktails.

Our events team are on hand to create bespoke canape menus for all types of events.

THE MUSIC

Music plays an integral role at Viajante87, where a 2am licence and extensive DJ programme of tribal house beats inspired by global travel – creates a cool atmosphere for not only discerning drinkers but also music lovers.

THE DESIGN

Designer Hamilford Design has delivered the same level of attention to the interiors, through sourcing high-quality materials to create a stylish design softened by low mood-lighting, oozing modernised glamour.

All eyes are drawn to a unique backlit bar of recycled glass, surrounded by a feature wall made entirely out of carved cork and accented with art pieces by the talented Mexican artist Oms Rocha. A one-of-a-kind mask serves as the centrepiece of the bar by the acclaimed Mexican artist Tellache, creator of the iconic Los Mochis mural.

THE EVENTS

For private hire, group bookings, birthday celebrations, Christmas parties, corporate events and much more, our events team are here to manage your event needs from start to finish.
