INTRODUCTION

Nestled within the heart of London's eclectic Soho district, Chotto Matte stands as an unrivalled icon of culinary innovation and cosmopolitan allure.

Revered for its groundbreaking Japanese Peruvian Cuisine, meticulously curated cocktails and an ambiance that sparks with magnetic energy, this is no ordinary dining destination - It's an immersive journey for the senses.

Step into the dynamic world of Chotto Matte, where our versatile event spaces stand ready to put on the perfect backdrop for your occasion. Whether it's a power lunch, an intimate dinner, or an exclusive celebration, our two-floor restaurant offers a tailored experience like no other.

Marvel at our chic contemporary interior, from the bold graffiti adorning our walls to the captivating theatrics of our Open Sushi Counter and the Robata grill, every corner tells a story.

NIKKEI CUISINE

Nikkei Cuisine is a unique culinary fusion that blends Japanese cooking techniques together with traditional Peruvian ingredients. At Chotto Matte you can expect a showcase of elevated Japanese Peruvian cuisine, artfully plated to perfection.

Combining these culinary traditions with locally sourced ingredients, internationally renowned Executive Chef Jordan Sclare takes an artistic approach, always keeping excellence at the forefront.

A celebration of fresh, local, high-quality ingredients, Chotto Matte is dedicated to providing an authentic, eco-conscious experience – working with producers who prioritise ethical farming practices.
