YAMATORA

ABOUT

Yamatora masterfully blends the time-honoured traditions of Japan with a refined European elegance, creating a dining experience that feels both authentic and effortlessly modern. This vibrant newcomer is quickly earning its place as one of South Hampstead's most talked-about dining destinations - an instant hit of Tokyo energy, infused with London style.

The menu is a celebration of bold Japanese flavours, designed to impress from the very first bite. Authenticity is central to the culinary vision here, with 90% of ingredients sourced directly from Japan. The drinks list features subtle sakes, premium Japanese beers, fine wines, and inventive cocktails.

But Yamatora's appeal extends well beyond the plate. Step inside the intimate dining room and you'll find a space buzzing with cool sophistication - its walls adorned with iconic Japanese art and vintage film posters. Tucked away from street view lies a secluded garden terrace, offering a peaceful urban escape for those in the know. Downstairs, a private events suite awaits, equipped with an audio-visual set up for business meetings, and a karaoke system for unforgettable parties.

The dedicated events team, flexible layouts, and focus on detail and presentation, ensures that an elevated private dining experience is delivered for corporate and social occasions alike. With the distinctive menu, immersive setting, and undeniable charm, Yamatora is a true Hampstead gem - and a place you'll want to return to again and again.
